1 advisory business to the London bank account of Madoff
2 Securities International Limited, a United Kingdom corporation
3 that was an affiliate of my business in New York. Madoff
4 Securities International Limited was principally engaged in 5 proprietary trading and was a legitimate, honestly run and 6 operated business. Nevertheless, to support my false statement
7 that I purchased and sold securities for my investment advisory 8 clients in European markets, I caused money from the bank 9 account of my fraudulent advisory business, located here in 10 Manhattan, to be wire transferred to the London bank account of 11 Madoff Securities International Limited.

12 There were also times in recent years when I had 13 money, which had originated in the New York Chase Manhattan
14 bank account of my investment advisory business, transferred 15 from the London bank account of Madoff Securities International 16 Limited to the Bank of New York operating bank account of my 17 firm's legitimate proprietary and market making business. That 18 Bank of New York account was located in New York. I did this 19 as a way of ensuring that the expenses associated with the 20 operation of the fraudulent investment advisory business would 21 not be paid from the operations of the legitimate proprietary
22 trading and market making businesses.

23 In connection with the purported trades, I caused the 24 fraudulent investment advisory side of my business to charge
25 the investment advisory clients four cents per share as a
